

RIVER HILL HIGH SCHOOL
Academic Integrity Policy
AP Government and Politics – Mrs. Schnaar
February, 2006

I. Level 1 Violations (see policy for details)

- Copying another student's homework, classwork, or ideas without the instructor's permission
- Allowing another student to copy homework or classwork without the instructor's permission
- Lack of internal citations (acknowledging another writer's direct words or thoughts) within a given assignment. Including a bibliography is not adequate.
- OR: Copying or paraphrasing an excerpt from the Internet or any other resource without citing the source
- Omitting parenthetical or internal citations from assignments
- Using another person's ideas without offering proper citation

II. Level II Violations

- Cheating on exams or quizzes
- Using the computer translator button in a World Language class without the teacher's permission
- Buying or copying an essay, lab report, or project and submitting it as one's own
- Using an assignment from a student who previously took the class
- Providing specific information about the content of an exam or quiz with a student who has not yet taken the exam/quiz
- Obtaining specific information about the content of an exam or quiz with a student who has already taken the exam/quiz
- Any intentional violations not listed

I understand the River Hill High School Academic Integrity Policy, and the consequences of committing any of the offenses listed above.

“On my honor, I will neither give nor receive unauthorized help on any type of assignment (homework, classwork, quiz, test, writing assignment, project...) in this class.”
